What a great day! What fantastic CEBS and Leaders we have! I'm proud of you all! You are like many grains formed in the one bread. I applaud your behaviour and courtesy today especially your personal thanks to the skiing instructors. A more friendly group of people you could not meet. I applaud your support of your fellow team members. Your team work is coming to the fore. Some grains still have not combined with the bread. You know who you are! Please tell of the fun you had each day during your Counsel Sessions and how it relates to the readings and add to the enjoyment of the Counsel. Once again! Well done!

Burrajum head to the water hole.

David Gregory and Andrew White seem to be the only ones traveling in a straight line.

Canoe Cam—Sarah!

The catapult main flinging arms will be cut today. Ropes will be available. Use the aluminium poles outside Pip's Place to make your main structure. Your catapults must be left over the road in the long grass. Do not interfere with any else's catapult or you will be disqualified. You will need to fashion a throwing basket to tie to the beam.

Burrajum enters the water from a great height with six members. Miggan had 7 take the great leap.

On Friday TOOWOONAN (grrr!) and Gwyla (yah!) went to Brisbane and we had a great time swimming at Breaka Beach and slurping slurpies and wandering around Queens Street Mall and going up City Hall (Yes! All Brisbanites liketo get up City Hall any chance we can!!!!..Ed.) Here are a few jokes:

- Q. What's , yellow, blue, green and smells like bananas?
 A. Monkey sick
 Q. Why do gorillas have such big nostrils?
 A. Have you seen the size of their fingers? Anon

Yesterday, Toowoonan and Gwyla went to Brisbane and had a lot of fun. If you ever go try the rainbow smash (That's if you haven't tried it yet.) The flavours are great. Info on Rainbow Smash. Mega: $3.40 1250ml Large: $2.60 900ml, Medium $2.20 for a 750ml and Small is $2.00 for a 475ml. Flavours: Tropo, Lemon, Berry, Black Ice. Well! That's all. I've also got some jokes.

One sunny day in the middle of the night. Two dead men got up to fight. Stood back to back and faced each other, drew their swords and shot each other.
 Q. What's green and eats porridge?
 A. Moldy Locks
 PS. Green Team don't send threats through the Tribal Drums!!!
